

"Don't be neurologically nullified in November but be nailed to the nearness of the noble nativity!!!"

Hey everyone! Servus, Ce faci?

Hope all is well...

It is November, my second month here in Brasov, Romania, and as I said in my first newsletter, it is amazing to be here! I can't even explain what it is like to go on missions trips like this. You just have to go where He sends you and trust that He will lead you.

So...news from here...

There is not much news since October. School is great. We will have a teacher soon. Church is wonderful – every Sunday and Wednesday we gather. What a privilege it is to have a Body to fellowship with. I feel so loved here and I love everyone here and will miss them tremendously when I leave.

We have Bible College every week on Monday. Outreach is every Saturday at 5 pm. What a variety of people we meet. No matter what, even if everyone rejects us, we know that God is doing His work. We just go out and share the seed; then HE does the rest.

We will celebrate Thanksgiving with a few people here. What a great holiday. "Give thanks unto the Lord for He is good and His love and mercy endureth forever." Psalm 118:1

As in Switzerland, everyone loves our singing. We just do it to minister to people and glorify God most of all! The weather here is still pretty nice, but I think it is about to pass over to winter. It is not normal for November to be so nice here.

The Thought

I have been studying the book of 1 Corinthians lately. The verses on my mind have been in Chapter 10, verses 26, "For the earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof," and 31, "Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the Glory of God."

Everything we do is for God's glory, being on these mission trips or being at home. Do all to the glory of God.

The End

We have only about five or six weeks left here. That's sad for me. I will probably cry, but I will also be happy to go home. Pray for us here, for our time and divine appointments and the school and church.

My LOVE to all!!!

Dumnezeu va iubeste!! God loves you!!

In Christ!

Ava-Lena Stambo

At Greater Grace International Academy in Brasov, Romania, as an exchange student from Frontline Church School in Lee, MA

November 2008