But the LORD is with me like a mighty warrior; so my persecutors will stumble and not prevail.

Jeremiah 20:11

We had an amazing conference here in Lima with P. Schaller. We had visitors from Peru: Lima, Trujillo, Mazamari and Oxapamapa; Ecuador: Guayaquil and Quito; United States, Brazil and Chile. God loved us, broke us, healed us, touched us, changed us and spoke to us. It was beautiful. At times I didn't like it but... I liked the result. I can be so blind about many things and then He comes gently and puts His finger on it, at first I can deny it, fight against it, and then I come to the end of myself and say: Yes, Lord, you are right, of course you are! Help me, I need help. And He does it. To sense His love it is so beautifully overwhelming. I thank God for the Body of Christ, for the people around me that sharpen me, disciple me, challenge me and love me. He knows what we need and always gives us the best even though at times it doesn't seem so.

After the conference in Lima, a group of us went to Trujillo, a city to the north where P. Justin Schaller is pastoring. There we had another conference with P. Schaller, P. Stan, P. Drew and P. Cliff Vincent. We did evangelism every day and one night we even had a service outside where many new people sat down to listen.

Outside service in Trujillo

In Trujillo we were in the plaza every day for 2 to 3 hours preaching the gospel. I was blessed to see people's faces changing while receiving the word. One man said: "I can't believe I came all the way from Lima to hear this, thank you". I was happy to tell him we were from Lima too. He stayed for the service after that. Some people came back the next day and stayed for hours with us. One who waters will himself be watered. Prov. 11:25 For sure we were!

People are raising their hands for salvation.

The church here is going great. We are growing in grace and knowledge of Christ. We go on the streets and share the gospel and many times people thank us for the message, young people especially. Praise the Lord!
We were happy to have many visitors this year, they blessed us and you could clearly see they were also blessed.
God is alive and so active!
